For over six years, Service Dogs by Warren Retrievers, a 501(c)3 non-profit organization, has been providing service dogs to people with “invisible disabilities” such as Diabetes, Autism, Seizure Disorders, and PTSD. The Organization, founded by Dan Warren and based in Madison, Virginia, has placed close to 500 service dogs with adults and children facing the daily challenges of living with a disability. All of the dogs in our service work are either Labrador or Golden Retrievers.

Becoming A Puppy Raiser

Every working service dog starts as a puppy that needs a loving home. A Puppy Raiser can provide that home and change a life in the process. SDWR is seeking “Puppy Raisers” to assist the Organization in the vital work it does and to help fulfill its mission, “Until there’s a cure, there’s a dog.” SDWR is looking to engage a larger community in service to people with disabilities through the Puppy Raiser Program. The Program will not only increase awareness of invisible disabilities but it will also give the Puppy Raiser the same joy and satisfaction the SDWR team receives each day.

A puppy raiser is responsible for teaching their puppy good behavior both at home and in public, and what to expect and accept in this busy world. Raisers also rear the pups to be close companions—to trust and be trusted. You can help us unite people with trained assistance dogs in this powerful program. You can raise a dog and change a life! Donations For Our Cause
As a 501(c)3 non-profit organization, we are very grateful for every donation we receive. We keep our operating costs as low as possible so that we can focus funding that we receive on the most important job we do—train and deliver service dogs to people in need.

Please donate today by either visiting our website, www.sdwr.org, select the “donations” tab from the menu or mail your tax deductible gift to our address below.
